God is... Man is...

Introduction

This study is an Appendix for the study, Image and Likeness of God: Form and Shape?
http://www.thelordschildren.org/bible_study/pdfs/imagegod.pdf

We searched the bible for the following phrases and recorded our results for both Old and New Testaments:

God is...
Man is...

The results are quite astounding beyond the reality that God is. This phraseology alone offered very valuable insights on both God and man in the following general categories:

Attributes in Being
Nature of Being
Essence and Substance in Being Personality Characteristics
Natural Characteristics

The following is in Raw Data Format. That means this information is unedited. This is a sequential listing of the all instances where the words: God and is; Man and is; are side by side in order for every verse of the bible sequentially by Book. Some verses listed may not reveal anything about God or man. For instance, when a sentence ends with God or man and the next sentence begins with is. Nonetheless, the results are very revealing and you need to review each verse for yourself to determine what is being said or revealed.

My primary motivation for the main study is to dispel the myth, which is heretical when twisted and distorted that some groups attempt to use to falsely teach that man is a god, but a lesser god than God is God; man is god and may become equal or greater to God as God is God; man will become god as God is God after his resurrection; Triune God in essence has a physical body; God is not Triune in nature; God like man. All such heresies are dispelled in the primary study.
